Unfortunately, he wants significant help with his legal fees for his defense as a condition. He says he is not helping anyone if he is going to prison for the rest of his life. His number is 150k. Likely can move on that.

He says his lawyers are about to walk. I'm discussing with C&S and PWA. We have previously obtained an opinion that this is ethically permitted but could obviously be used to impeach. JBM is a smart guy and could handle this. Will keep you advised.

Here are a few other developments/leads from my trip:

10. Gave Ivan $5,400 for security costs for him, ET and Samario. Need to pay $2,700 per month to maintain until we get deps in the can, and depending on what happens, we may need to do more for the families. ET and Samario are rattled as Bocanegra also threatned their families.
11. Gave Duarte's family another 2 million Col. Pesos (about $1,000) to complete their relocation following threats.
